

Stacy Allan is the choral director and music teacher at Michael A. Riffel Catholic High School in Regina, SK. An alumnus of the University of Regina, she completed her Bachelor of Music Education in 2005 and Master of Music in 2018, studying choral conducting under Dr. Dominic Gregorio. Stacy recently completed a Master of Music Education at Western University, focusing on inquiry based teaching in the choral classroom. Stacy is a member of Wascana Voices, a 12-voice choral ensemble based in Regina.