Kitbielle Pasagui is a Filipino-Canadian choral conductor, vocal coach, and vocalist. Born and raised in the Philippines, she discovered her passion for music at an early age as a member of the Mandaluyong Children's Choir. With the ensemble, she represented the Philippines at the 2nd World Choir Olympics in Busan, South Korea; the World Children's Choir Festival in China and Hong Kong; and the International Choral Kathaumixw in Powell River, British Columbia, Canada.

She pursued studies in Vocal Performance at the University of the Philippines College of Music under the mentorship of Professor Ligaya Quinitio, Dr. Eudenice Palaruan, Dr. Beverly Shangkuan-Cheng, and Professor Mark Anthony Carpio.

Kitbielle is an alumna and former soloist of the world-renowned Philippine Madrigal Singers. As a member of the ensemble, she toured extensively across Asia, Europe, North America, and South America, performing in goodwill concert tours throughout the United States, Canada, Argentina, Paraguay, and Uruguay. During her time with the group, the ensemble was recognized by UNESCO as Artists for Peace in 2009 and received both the Guidoneum Award from the Concorso Polifonico Guido d'Arezzo Foundation and the BrandLaureate Premier Award from the Asia Pacific Brands Foundation.

Since relocating to Canada in 2012, Kitbielle has remained deeply engaged in the Canadian choral community. She has performed with the Korora Youth Choir (formerly Kokopelli Youth Choir), Alberta Youth Choir, Ellison Canadian Honour Choir, TIME Association's NUF SED, and Òran. From 2013–2019, she served as assistant conductor of the Ellison Canadian Honour Choir. In 2021, she conducted the ensemble at MusicFest Canada and continues to serve as co-conductor.

Her artistry and leadership have earned national recognition. In November 2023, she was selected as the Apprentice Conductor for the 2024 National Youth Choir of Canada. She is also the recipient of the Sir Ernest MacMillan Memorial Foundation Award for Choral Conducting, the Dr. Patricia Abbott Conducting Scholarship, and Choir Alberta's Award of Distinction – Con Spirito (2025). She was also featured as the "Emerging Conductor" in Pro Coro Canada's Emerging Artist Series under the mentorship of Michael Zaugg.

Kitbielle currently serves as Associate Conductor of Korora Youth Choir and conductor of Shumayela. She is also a voice teacher at the Purple Door Music Academy and a singer with Òran and Pro Coro Canada.

Short Version -

Kitbielle Pasagui is a Filipino-Canadian choral conductor, vocal coach, and vocalist based in Edmonton, Alberta. A former soloist of the world-renowned Philippine Madrigal Singers, she has performed extensively across Asia, Europe, and the Americas. She studied Vocal Performance at the University of the Philippines College of Music under the mentorship of Professor Mark Anthony Carpio, Professor Ligaya Quinitio, Dr. Eudenice Palaruan, and Dr. Beverly Shangkuan-Cheng.

Kitbielle currently serves as Associate Conductor of Korora Youth Choir and conductor of Shumayela. She is also a voice teacher at the Purple Door Music Academy and sings with Òran and Pro Coro Canada. In 2023, she was selected as the Apprentice Conductor for the 2024 National Youth Choir of Canada and is a recipient of Choir Alberta's Award of Distinction – Con Spirito (2025).